

NACO LETTER.

A gentleman registered as J. H. Macia, from Tombstone, made it very lively for the roulette game run by Mr. Coburn, in the bar of the Hotel Naco last Sunday night. He made bets of $10 and $20 on a number and $100 on the color, and after about an hour's play quit the game $1300 winner. The game created considerable talk on account of the size of the bets.

Dr. Brandon states that the Mexican injured last Friday, an account of which appeared in the Review, is getting along finely and will recover from his injuries.

The captain of the Fort Huachuca base ball nine informed the Review man that on Sunday, June 8th, they would play a game at La Cananea, Sonora, with the nine there. The Huachuca boys will reach Naco from the fort by wagon and take the train for La Cananea on the Saturday preceding the game. A number of base ball enthusiasts from Bisbee have stated their intention to be present.

Frank Bauer, the genial proprietor of the City Meat Market, has just received a carload of fine alfalfa fed beef cattle from Phoenix.
